Do You Love Me Reflections by Fr. Mike Messaro, M.SS.CC.

What would we answer if Jesus asked us the same question he asked Peter? "Do you love me?" We would, no doubt, answer it like Peter did. "Yes Lord, you know I love you." Well, Jesus does ask us that question every day, in fact, many times every day. But not exactly directly, and not in those words. Jesus asks all of us many times a day in the things he lets happen in our lives.

When we wake up in the morning with a duty to face, it is Jesus asking us, "Do you love me?" We show our answer by getting up and doing that duty, or by rolling over and going back to sleep.

When someone tries our patience, they annoy us, we want to tell them off, it is Jesus asking, "Do you love me?" And then we show him our answer by either losing our patience or keeping it.

We are sick, our car broke down, we don't have enough money to last through the month, the mother-in-law is coming for a visit, we want to complain to the world bitterly when all of a sudden we realize it is just Jesus asking us, "Do you love me?"

We are asked the question many times every day. Do we love Jesus or do we not love him. All Jesus has to do is keep watching us, and he will soon get his answer.
